This cause came on to be heard upon the Defendant's Motion to Decertify and based on the entire record and the arguments of counsel, the Court concludes the Motion to Decertify is not well taken and should be denied, but grants the stay insofar as discovery should be stayed pending conclusion of proceedings in the Court of Appeals.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED the Defendant's Motion to Decertify is denied. It is further ordered that the stay of discovery is granted and discovery is stayed pending conclusion of proceedings in the Court of Appeals.
